The

Loyola

published by

The Class of 1950

Loyola High School

Towson 4, Maryland

JOSEPH A. MEAD, Editor-in-Chief

ROBERT K. RUZICKA, Business Manager

Foreword

Dedicated to the great Spanish knight depicted on our cover, Loyola High School sends into the world, year after year, Christian knights clad in the armor of faith and armed with the Sword of the Spirit. In 1950 she sends forth her Loyola Dons as heralds of Christian optimism in an age overshadowed by black clouds of pessimism. We, the knights of 1950, know no black fear born of the worship of material power. We are fresh from the fountains of hope, we are nourished by the Bread of Life. Loyola's men of 1950 think not of world destruction, but of world regeneration. The Way we know, the Truth we know; may the life be always with us.

REV. GREGORY G. KIEHNE, S.J.

Dedication

The class of 1950 gratefully dedicates its edition of "The Loyola" to Father Kiehne, friend, teacher and adviser of Loyola boys for the past six years. For us he has always been more than just a teacher of geometry and religion. He has never been too busy or too much in a hurry to stop for a few kind words. We remember his encouraging "Very good, son" in geometry class; we remember those very practical religion lectures; we remember the excellent baseball team he coached; but above all we will remember him as a priest of God, ever our friend, because he is His friend. To Father Kiehne our sincere gratitude for helping us to be true sons of God and men of Loyola.

Fourth Year A

President: THOMAS J. ANDREWS

Vice-President: PAUL C. MCCUSKER

The time Winand actually knew the vocabulary — Burch, ivory tickler of the b'hoys in the back row — Freeze threatening to maul Gunther with a soggy spaghetti noodle — Fr. Murray helping McLean give his classroom speech — Huber perfecting his sub-conscious talents — Weigman tapping messages to Fr. Lanigan — Shehan! Where's your prose? — Jones matching pens with Edgar A. P. — Hagner battin .000 on the solid geometry nine — "McComas, you're a genius" — Heid, poet laureate — Jim Keenan and his Be Bops — Wheltle, Saint Mark's socialite — Nelligan, Cain, Biser, the brothers — Mead trying to get the yearbook published — peg-leg Kelly — "Look at that gesture, Holden, like a dead fish" — Streb putting Archimedes to shame — Strott referees the Fr. Lanigan-Andrews bout — "Scott, sit up" — "Excellent, Mr. Walsh" — Bill Keenan, "Boy, my brother's good looking" — Wheltle, Saint Mark's socialite has his name on the front page of the paper — "Rice, you could be a genius, tch, tch" — "Scrivener, don't you ever have a pencil?" — McComas and McLean offer Walsh some of their geometry points — Rohr gains fame modeling radios at the magazine assembly.

Fourth Year B

President: CLARENCE E. GOETZ

Vice-President: ROBERT J. BURNS

There is joy in our hearts, and a touch of melancholy, too, as we turn this, the last leaf of our high school career. For who could forget the Fink and Abbott combine — "Litz or Lutz, stop that talking" — "J. L. Anderson, translate" — R. J. Anderson, physics teacher de luxe — Murphy, the smiling Irishman — Mueller's triumphant return — Farabaugh's school spirit — Dunn's slow drawl — Chesnut's "Aw, I don't believe that" — Stevens' unanswerable questions — Fahy, gentleman farmer — Hart, All-Maryland cheer leader — Rinaldi: "What's wrong with Seton?" — Spigelmire and Sattler Incorporated — J. Sullivan, anchor of the French class — Hoffman on the varsity five — Hofferbert's "Give me a piece of paper" — "Burns, stop pestering Sweeney" — Fink and Potthast quiet as mice, but something's going on — M. Sullivan, the model booster — Frederick and McLaughlin in race for the tallest — Donnelly, "I'll stand on the float" — Kraus's bicycle acrobatics — Ruzicka, Business Manager of yearbook staff — Hennegan, Fr. Bradley's Latin scholar — "Ben Hogan" Buppert sinks an ace — Lubert's, "Who's got a weed?" — Hochrein's "Little Flower Drum Corps" — Goetz, our class president. And so we close another chapter in the book of our lives.

UNDERCLASSES

Third Year A

President: GEORGE V. COYNE

Vice-President: DANIEL E. SPEDDEN

It's hard to believe, but three years have sped by since our coming to Loyola. Now all we have are memories. Ah! but what memories: the great mixture of the ridiculous with the sublime . . . Bongardt's one man crusade against well-groomed hair . . . the one answer for every difficulty in German: "That's the way the mothers taught their kids" . . . Young's impromptu debates with Kernan in English class . . . the book passing combination of Phillips, O'Brien, and Schertle, with more deception than a Notre Dame backfield . . . Reda and Pazourek's play in intramural football . . . Tivvis' reference to the "other book" for good Latin translations . . . Phillips' wisecracks that always kept the class in good spirits . . . in the poet's corner were Horneman, Oles, and Gil "Diogenes" Kearney . . . Spedden's penny-pinching way as class treasurer. To our teachers, a "thank you" is in order. To Herr Jones, "Wir danken dir." To Mr. Latchford, "Who can make up a harder test? But we thank you nonetheless." To Mr. McCreesh, "No one knows Xenophon better in our class!" To Mr. Linehan, "Our thanks to you for our lessons on how to kill a whale with an equalizer."

Third Year B

President: EDWARD T. MAXWELL

Vice-President: MARION J. BALCERZAK

Looking back at the year spent in 3B, we will always remember Azzaro's famous remark to Mr. Latchford . . . "You awake, Aiello?" . . . Zamecki's tales of the weekend . . . Balcerzak's "Give me your money" . . . The day Fertitta gave Cooney a hotfoot . . . Barany's "Can't see, my glasses are dirty" . . . "Turn around, Sparrow" . . . The heretics in the back row, Kurowske, Conneely and Clarkson . . . "Hey, Donohue, who swiped the beadle-slips?" . . . Burt's size twelve saddles . . . Cichowicz's brilliant answers . . . O.K. Gunning, this afternoon . . . Judge's nice shade of purple . . . The day Jordan shaved . . . "Alright, Bauerman, write 'horse' one thousand times" . . . Clark's wizardry . . . Kedzior's beard . . . Price's helpful hints . . . Quimper discussing the theory of evolution with Mr. Latchford . . . McLaughlin's "You're behind in your Sodality dues" . . . Panico's little Hot Rod . . . The Christmas toy drive found the room full of racing toy cars . . . Conneely and Shriver slip on and off the J. V. Football first string . . . Connelly wasn't writing with a pen, was he? . . . Donohue develops a spur on his heel just to imitate Joe DiMaggio . . . Gunning is relocated to maintain a balance of power in the class . . . We missed our magazine quota, but we put up a great fight.

Third Year C

President: WILLIAM F. BURKE

Vice-President: FREDERICK G. BUCHNESS

Long will we remember . . . Robertson's "Just three days jug, Mister?" . . . Brockmeyer's "How 'bout that problem being solved my way?" . . . King's well worn but ever welcome "Well, shut my mouth!" . . . Gahan's "Are you sure you're doing the right thing?" . . . Hughes' "What's my money being used for?" . . . Barber's high pitched "I can't see that for nothin'" . . . Lauttman's "Let's argue this from a philosophical point of view, huh?" . . . Arthur's "Aw, get your feet off of my chair, will you?" . . . Maiorana's familiar blush after receiving a hearty laugh from all . . . Ryan's "Gee, that sandwich looks good; I'll buy it from ya!" . . . Donnelly's agricultural conferences with Mr. Averdick . . . J. Burke, Rooney, Donnay, The Three Musketeers, and their hilarious antics . . . Where's Kane's seat anyway? . . . Dusterhoff's "Yes, I'm a cheerleader, but I never hear you cheering" . . . "Sure, Mister, Stevens and Jesilionis are having a real discussion back there, but it's about Algebra" . . . And from the pencil sharpener comes McFarlin's "This thing better get sharp or something's going to be done about it" . . . Ayd's "I knew that poem last night" . . . And then McGovern's "Reeelly" . . . Then in McKeever, Buchness, Sokolis, Brockmeyer, Miller and Smith we find outstanding athletes.

Third Year D

President: CHARLES W. HICKS

Vice-President: JOSEPH S. DESANTIS

Reminiscing on our junior year at Loyola, we recall . . . DeSantis peddling Christmas Cards . . . Buddy Orendorff's weekly plea, "But Mister, I have to work on Saturday" . . . Mattson with his pretzels . . . those questions of Gross . . . Rattman addressing us in his fatherly tones . . . Otell's "I didn't hear the question, Mister" . . . Gorsuch, the owner of an outstanding laugh . . . Wunder strolling into class late . . . Mr. Galloway, "Le Petit Tailleur" . . . Mr. Averdick with his atoms and molecules . . . and of course Mr. Linehan, the walking book store . . . Hicks, our dependable beadle . . . Connolly, always ready for a Latin Translation . . . the time Lewis received only 96 in a Latin Test . . . Doxzen's "Maher, how much time?" . . . Brown's "D.A." . . . Kalinowski, our strong silent man . . . Thommen, an admirer of the French Language (ha) . . . Lansinger and Mersinger, our varsity Baseball pitchers . . . Flattery and Fava arguing the periods by . . . Idzi, always arguing with Wunder . . . Roche, the man that made green shirts famous . . . Corcoran, usually supplying the class with paper . . . Drummond, telling Chaffman the wrong answers . . . Hummel's "Wait a minute, Mister."

Second Year A

President: ANDREW J. WAGNER

Vice-President: RONALD L. GUTBERLET

2A, a class with variety, a little bit of everything from the teachers down to the brilliant, wide awake, handsome pupils . . . Mr. Dinneen's "Now that's a good question" . . . Math and Mr. Vaeth . . . Latin and Mr. Colgan . . . Mr. McAndrew's "Up to the desk" . . . Now to the ingenious pupils . . . Kline, the little man who wasn't there . . . Haroth, varsity brainstorm . . . "Big" John Small . . . Andy "Varsity" Wagner . . . Peerenboom, artist, "Home, James, in the ve-hik-al" . . . Snuff Neuslein, another varsity man, a Greek student . . . McBride, cheer leader . . . Mitchell, the hair . . . Ronnie Gutberlet, "money bags" . . . Monroe, Green, Tormey, "Little Larry" Lanahan and Haroth form a formidable line of intellectuals . . . Pohlar, healthy specimen . . . King, native American? . . . P-R-Z-Y-B-Y-L-S-K-I, wow! . . . Clisham and Neuslein, the two Harpies . . . Mosmiller, needs a shave . . . Zorback, "Mumbles" . . . Cohen, blue shirt, green tie, purple coat . . . Awalt, star gazer . . . Voelker, history fan . . . even a Tom and Jerry, Tom Dorn and Jerry Roesler . . . Coyne, Toni Home Permanant . . . Allenbaugh, "Did you take your book home last night?" . . . Walsh and Kearney comprise the rest of our roster, plus yours truly, Ady.

Second Year B

President: RICHARD C. PAZOUREK

Vice-President: HEYWARD E. BOYCE

Looking over our second year at Loyola, I find the outstanding incidents happening in our class . . . Mansur answering, "I don't know what happened in 1492" . . . Fr. Fitzgerald's "Alright, put your feet down, Gallagher" . . . Mr. McAndrew's "I'll give you 35 for being here and five for your answer" . . . The easy (huh) theorems of Mr. Vaeth . . . The broken Venetian blind next to Connor . . . The 99 Ihle failed to get in the Latin test . . . Strauch's Einstein proofs of a problem . . . Kesmodel's late again . . . The day that eight were juggled from our class . . . Feild's J. V. runs . . . Donnellan's "correct answers, but" . . . Hill's quiet smile . . . Pazourek's masterful job as class president . . . Mr. Dinneen's "Greek is a snap, and speak from the diaphragm!" . . . Fr. Kiehne's weekly Guidance talks . . . Murray's giggle . . . Doetzer's proud, "wounded" knee . . . Cala's calmness . . . Smith's geometry . . . Murray's knowing tomorrow's lesson today . . . Mace, Burch and Vitek in their sewing circle . . . Campbell's fly-catching association . . . Rohr's "wide awake Attitude" . . . "Bones" Leakan . . . Hinkleman's quiet times up front . . . Kirby's perfect pronunciation of Latin . . . McLaughlin just sitting and listening . . . Parrelli's prolonged composition . . . and finally Ihle, Kesmodel and Cavey in the Honor Card Race.

Second Year C

President: GERALD C. CHROW

Vice-President: EDWARD J. FALLON

"Tene in memoria" . . . Braungart and his Monday football scars . . . Buedel's "I didn't do nothin', Mister" . . . Rook's hair getting shorter . . . Chrow's beaming smile when telling a boy that Father Murray is outside the door . . . the crunching of McComas and those afternoon pretzels . . . Dryden and his peculiar sense of humor . . . Robert Child's Geometry brain . . . Verscio's mumbled "But that's our bell, Mister" . . . Fangman, our expert on cameras . . . Brady's face turning scarlet . . . Grimes' strange desire to become a nuisance in Mister McAndrew's class . . . Hoffman knew his Latin but "Oh, those Monday morning tests" . . . Brune always trying to trick Mister Vaeth with his Geometry brain . . . Enright's "Mister, I'm turning over a new leaf," for the 99th time . . . Richardson's questions in Father Kiehne's Guidance class . . . Fallon's "Lend me a piece of paper, Brady" . . . Burke, the authority on the Clippers . . . Snedecor, that man with the well groomed hair . . . Brune and that soft, clear, distinct, whistle . . . Foster debating the day's news with Rook . . . William Childs, 2C's golf pro . . . Boote and that wonderful, wavy, golden hair . . . Gaither, a strong competitor for Brady's crown . . . Buppert and Kelly, two boys with a desire to succeed . . . Liszewski proudly sitting down after a perfect recitation in Latin.

Second Year D

President: ROBERT J. COLLINS

Vice-President: THEODORE J. WIES

The spotlight now falls on the inspiring class of Second Year D. We shall never forget that we were always represented by at least one intelligent individual. If there is something going on, someone of us will always be there. In sports like football, ice-hockey, baseball and basketball we are always represented. Our boys are at all the games. We are first also in the way of teachers. Take, for example, Mr. McAndrew. He tells us how the settlers gave the Indians a gallon of "Moonshine" for a plot of land. Mr. Prescott is the man who makes us slice up helpless little worms. Mr. Helfrich crams congruent triangles into our crowded heads. Fr. Murray is our master of English and Religion. Fr. Fitzgerald tells us how Jason got Medea with a little black magic. Yes, 2D has the best in everything. Now you know some of the high-lights of that wonderful class known in social circles as Second Year Dee. If you are interested in us, keep those eyes of yours open and your glasses clean, because we are the class with class.

Second Year E

President: JAMES E. FANNON

Vice-President: JOHN G. O'LEARY

Time marches on! Over the years we will forget much of what has been taught in the classrooms of Loyola, but how can we forget . . . "Bow-tie" Burton . . . "Sit up straight, Purcell" . . . "Who's entertaining you, Garmer?" . . . O'Leary sitting out history periods . . . The Declaration of Independence by McKenna . . . Ortman's store . . . Cholewczynski's Cadillac . . . Kane's "Could you repeat that again, Mister?" . . . LaFond's "Ain't it awful, Mister?" . . . LaPorte and Riehl enjoying life together . . . Regan, traveller of the world . . . Fannon, arguing for the lights from Mr. Helfrich . . . all this and much more made up our life in 2E, but our life would not have been complete without Mr. Connolly's notations on Caesar, or Mr. Helfrich's explanation of geometry, Mr. Prescott's history and biology classes and Fr. Kiehne's guidance classes . . . Scott's continual smile . . . the man who bounced chalk on the desk . . . elocution class sending us up and down the scale . . . our final spurt in the magazine drive.

First Year A

President: RAYMOND EVANS

Vice-President: JOSEPH MURRAY

Lest we forget . . . Mr. Crimy's famed expression: "Waltz me around again Willie" . . . McHugh, Eichelman, Pessagno and Schildwachter, the Library Quartet . . . Garland, alias "Varsity Tom," giving Geis a hard time . . . Fonte, the best dressed man at Loyola . . . Staub, the mad Russian of 1A . . . Cardwell, our cheerleader, and Streb, slowly blowing their tops . . . Kuper trying to make his head touch his toes . . . Lombardi, ever wanting to know what is behind the "Secret Door" . . . Martin's complete overhauling job in mid-term, including a pair of glasses . . . Evans, class president and treasurer of the Junior Sodality . . . Natale's pathetic expression, "I didn't do nothin' Mister" . . . Balcerzak, football star and Restivo, the brains of 1A . . . Jett and his rules for neuter . . . Staiti and Nolan, class jokers . . . Wade, class newcomer who is doing fine in his studies . . . Klug, great sports enthusiast and a vocab whiz . . . Horigan, J. V. tackle . . . Sauer, all around athlete . . . Sylvester and Foreman, honor men . . . Bennett, a staunch debater . . . Close, the Algebra Scholar . . . Long Frank Wilkinson, ace basketball center . . . Murray, vice-president, always looking for the class dues or getting new ideas . . . Craig, never disturbing anyone . . . Herbert, always with a colorful bow-tie . . . Thus ends the cast of 1A . . . Some class, huh?

First Year B

President: JAMES E. EAGLE

Vice-President: JOSEPH C. HEALY

Now that we're through the formal introductions, we would like to have you meet some of our personalities, and we do mean personalities. On the sports scene 1B offers the names of Mighty Tom Shehan and Big Bill Flattery to stand beside the football immortals. David Regester and Tom Dunn dive and swim to bring the championship home for the Blue and Gold. Suter, Petrik, Riggan and Holz toe the line for the basketball team. Not only in sports are we represented. Higgins, who comes to school when the spirit moves, provides some classic entertainment. Verney's definition of a verb will doubtless revolutionize modern grammar and astound future generations of grammarians. Eagle's laugh even now fills with awe those poor unfortunates subjected to it. How Mr. Hargaden withstands the terrible onslaught of Tom Dunn's evil eye is a modern miracle. Dernoga sits in the back of the room quietly manufacturing honor cards, and Higgins sits in the front turning out laughs and giggles. Yet, when the smoke clears and the air is again safe, we find that through thick and thin we were glad to be in 1B. We're different, as Father Sheridan says, we're from 1B.

First Year C

President: JOHN T. YUHN

Vice-President: JOHN G. EVANS

Memories we'll always cherish . . . Our Class Teacher, Mr. Kennedy, leading us thru the intricacies of Latin . . . Mr. Crimy, eliciting interest in English . . . Mr. Colgan, helped make History interesting . . . Mr. Hargaden drills us in mathematical formulae, and Father Kiehne kept us on the "straight and narrow" . . . Bahr and Ray vying for scholastic honors . . . Landa and his "bellum" set records for speed . . . those dashes of "built-for-speed" Loskarn up and down the aisles . . . nor will we ever forget Plott and Kneval's dislike for a certain person . . . McWilliams, the Annapolis commuter . . . Bateman, efficiently handling absentees . . . clear-voiced Scheide and his inaccuracies . . . "Sir" Ringrose always asking questions . . . calm, never-worry Tortoro . . . our football stalwarts, Chester, Schaefer and Hatch . . . Evans enlivening things with his "D.M's." . . . scholastic competition between Turner and Yuhn . . . Sinnott and his "Toni" curls . . . Victor and his difficulty with "conquerer" . . . our basketball prodigies, Judge, Kerr and Bullen . . . Ernst, Ottenritter and Yuhn being compared with their brothers' abilities in Latin . . . Winand and his "days off" . . . Mr. Kennedy standing Zacharko on a chair so he could be heard . . . Zellhofer always enjoying a good joke . . . All cherished memories of our first year as Loyola Dons.

First Year D

President: ROBERT L. HEYMANN

Vice-President: PAUL R. CLARKSON

We first became acquainted after Mahoney caught the chalk tossed by Father Brew to illustrate a lesson in Latin. After his first glimpse at Latin, Douglas remarked with a wry face, "Gee!! Are we supposed to get that?" . . . Fall, occasionally plagued by an empty stomach . . . Effinger and Mahoney remark, "Wha' happened to my books?" . . . Ross makes some hilarious remark only to be greeted by these fateful words, "Ross, jug this afternoon" . . . Heimberger and those ties . . . Corsa endeavors to stay awake during Latin . . . Our long distance commuter, Jack Smith . . . Harris and Fava always have the right answers . . . Schamerhorn draws a laugh with, "Well, it's something like that" . . . Pazourek's saintly expression when corrected for having a conversation with Ross . . . Kwedar's favorite remark when asked to give a speech during English class, "Mr. Henry, will you please leave the room?" . . . Heymann, brief on his election speech, now finds plenty to say . . . Maciejewski, the small silent type . . . Kreller looks innocent during a class disturbance . . . Clarkson, never in jug, yet . . . Gardner, afflicted by outbursts of laughter . . . Atkinson, possessor of the smoothest hair in the class . . . Yes, we are looking forward to June when we hope to become sophomores.

First Year E

President: JOSEPH L. QUINN

Vice-President: THOMAS B. STROTT

Though we are the last, we are not the least. We have William Peerenboom, the author of "The Million Dollar Caper", which was presented on the Freshman Page of the "Blue and Gold". Mr. O'Brien is our home-room teacher, and I am sure that he considers us that best class he has ever presided over as "Major Domo". Our class is currently in the lead in the race for the privilege of having more jug cases than any other in the school, led by Franz and Ryan. Rough and tough Erhardt always entertains us with a story during the elocution period. We will always remember the day Clark gave us a very interesting lecture on the structure and use of phrases and clauses, ably assisted by Mr. Henry. When the lecture was over, everyone was greatly enlightened on the subject, (that is all except Clark). There is only one thing wrong with our "Learning Skills" period, it is too long. (This remark is made with complete faith in Freedom of the Press and with a hope that we will not have any more homework because of it).

ACTIVITIES

Ad Jesum Per Mariam

Senior Sodality

With the words "ad Jesum per Mariam" ever before the eyes of its members, the Senior Sodality embarked on a most successful year in September. The Sodality established a precedent at Loyola by electing its officers in May of 1949. The following were selected: Frank Stafford, Prefect, Jack Potthast, Vice-Prefect, Dick Otenasek, Treasurer, George Coyne, Secretary.

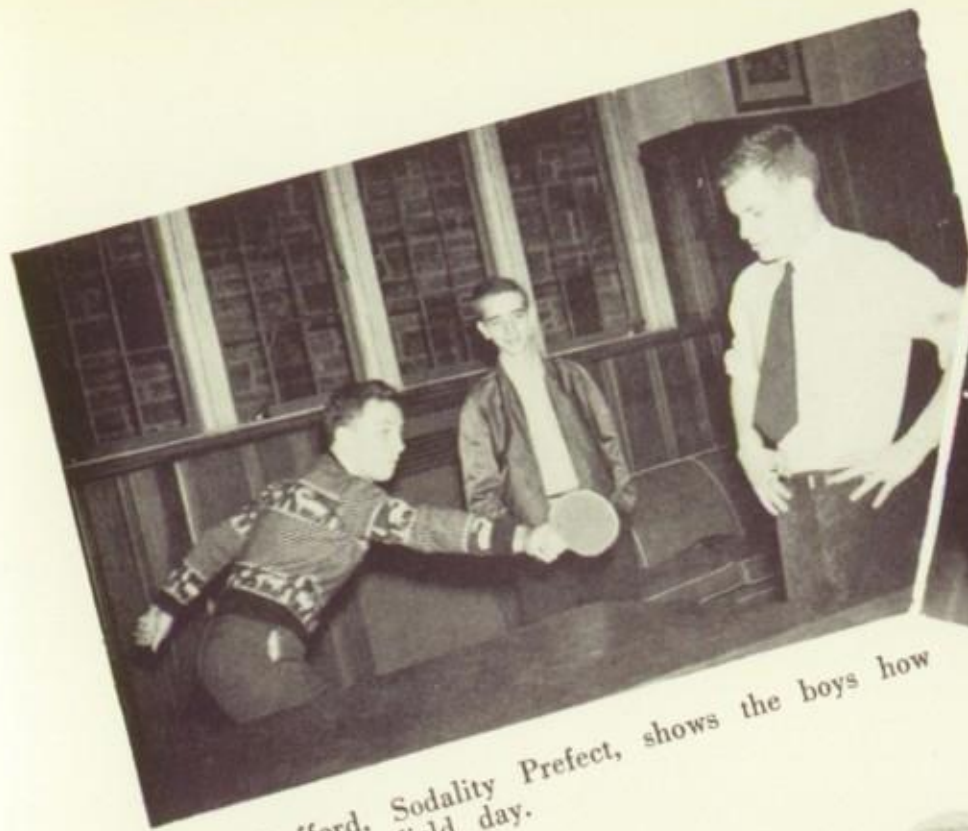

The year was successful from many points of view. The Sodality made an effort to fulfill its aim of sanctifying its members by having a very comprehensive review of the Sodality rules. At each meeting during the year the most important of the rules were discussed. To bring the rules even closer to the Sodalists, a "Character Builder" campaign was inaugurated. During each month a certain virtue was discussed, skits were staged and the Sodalists were urged to strive to imitate the particular virtue. The Senior Sodality notes with particular pride that all of its members received copies of the Rule Book, the Office of Our Lady and each month the Sodality magazine, THE QUEEN'S WORK. On the feast of the Immaculate Conception the Sodalists displayed further their love for Mary by attending Mass and Communion in a body at St. Ignatius Church.

The Sodality also fulfilled its other end, namely, helping the less fortunate. Many committees were formed for this purpose. To mention all of the drives undertaken by the Sodality would be virtually impossible. The following projects were of particular importance and stand out from the others. The annual Christmas Toy Drive for the orphans was a success. In fact, more toys were collected than in any other previous year. The magazine drive received the same generous response. The annual Clothing Drive ranks with the Toy Drive in contributions. All of these drives were under the very able direction of Harry Zerner, Les McLaughlin and the Apostolic Committee.

Our Lady's committee enjoyed a membership of sixty members. Each week these followers of Mary could be seen during the lunch period saying the Rosary in the chapel.

Tony Young, as chairman of the Publication Committee, did an excellent job in publicizing the Sodality activities. Tony was assisted in his work by a staff of capable members. Sam Fertitta, Bill Kernan and others deserve special commendation.

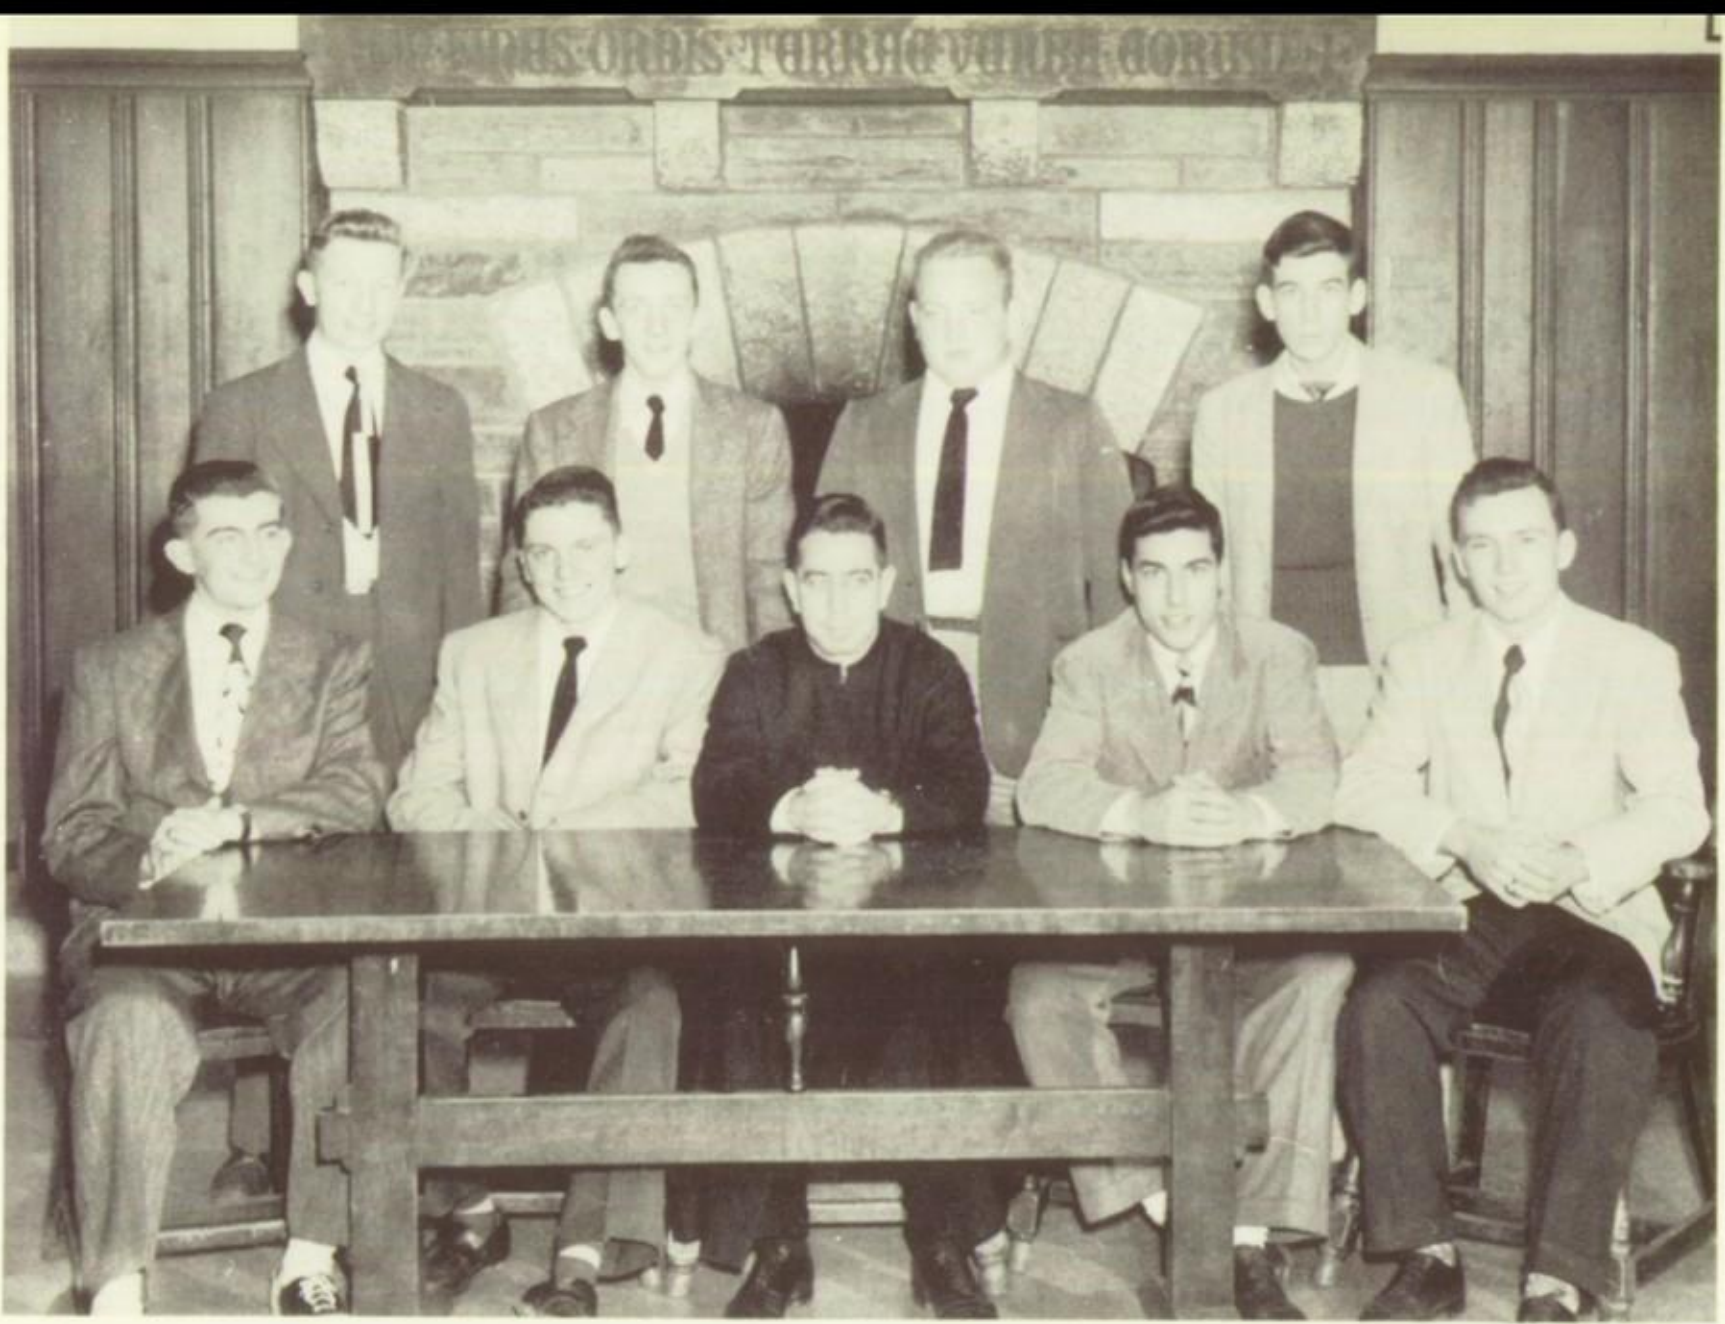

The Knights of the Blessed Sacrament remained one of the most important committees. The members were divided according to parishes. In this way each knight could remind his companions in his parish to observe the Holy Week-end. This proved very helpful.

In February a Sodality convention was held at Catholic High. Sodalists from most of the Catholic high schools in Baltimore were present. The crowd numbered between five and six hundred. Rev. Richard L. Rooney, S.J., of the Sodality office in St. Louis directed the day. Fr. Knott, our Moderator, celebrated Mass to start the day on the proper note. Most of the Sodalists received Holy Communion. Fr. Rooney conducted several lively discussions on Sodality rules and Sodality aims. When the day ended with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament all felt that the new city-wide Sodality Union was really a success. Special thanks are due to the Sisters at Catholic High for their wonderful hospitality.

Our Prefect ran the weekly meetings.

Bellarmino Debating Society

Bruce Alderman, President

William Hicken, Vice-President

Debates, forums, round-table discussions, informal meetings, all of this provided one of the most interesting and enjoyable years in the history of the Bellarmine Debating Society. Late in September the society held its initial meeting under the direction of Mr. Connolly, S.J. Members were enrolled and became acquainted with one another during the week preceding elections. Bruce Alderman, a standout on last season's team, was chosen as president, and Bill Hicken vice-president and secretary. October brought with it the annual tryouts for the debating team. Enthusiasm was high as the day approached. With three faculty judges the "A" team was chosen. Bruce Alderman, Frank Stafford, John Lutts and Bill Hicken rounded out the first four. Mr. Connolly discontinued the "B" team in order to give all the members more experience and a better opportunity in outside competition and exhibition debates.

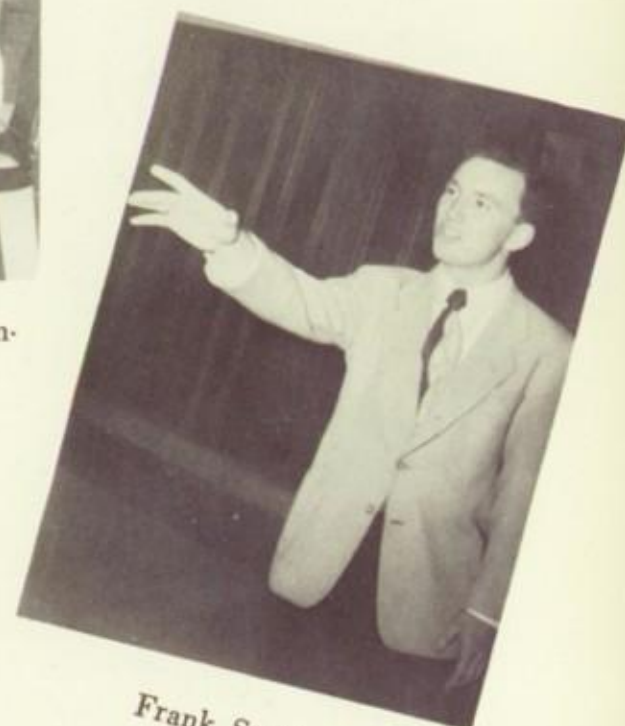

The official topic for the year was, Resolved: that the President of the United States should be elected by the direct vote of the people. Indeed, a more timely subject could not have been found, as the debators will agree. Hundreds of questions, hours of study and preparation occupied the spare time of the "A" team. Loyola journeyed to Gonzaga and Georgetown Prep, both of Washington, to engage them in non-decision contests.

Bruce Alderman

Bruce Alderman, Bill Hicken and Frank Stafford compare notes on the official debate topic.

Frank Stafford

After weeks of preliminaries the Catholic School League finally began its schedule. The Institute of Notre Dame versus Loyola was the first contest, and the Dons met their match. Yes, I.N.D. was judged the winner in a close decision. Catholic High also took home the laurels from Blakefield. However, the tide turned and Calvert Hall, Notre Dame of Maryland and Mt. St. Agnes fell to the arguments of the affirmative and negative teams. Early in December St. Joseph's evened the score, when it gained a victory in the final debate of the first round. The record speaks for itself. The league was tough; there was keen competition.

Intra-society debates marked the weekly program, and the members were afforded many opportunities for improvement in public speaking. Teams entertained Holy Name Societies and social organizations throughout the city. The traditional senior debate was conducted before the January meeting of the Mothers' Club. Late in the month W.B.A.L. invited Loyola to hold an informal discussion over the Junior Town Meeting of the Air. Direct election was turned inside 'out, and scarcely a detail was overlooked in the course of the year. Oratorical contests also held a prominent part in our active schedule. Alderman, Stafford and Hicken placed in the finals of the annual "Voice of Democracy" contest staged early in October at radio station W.F.B.R. Again Loyola contestants were seeking awards in the Hearst Oratorical Contest.

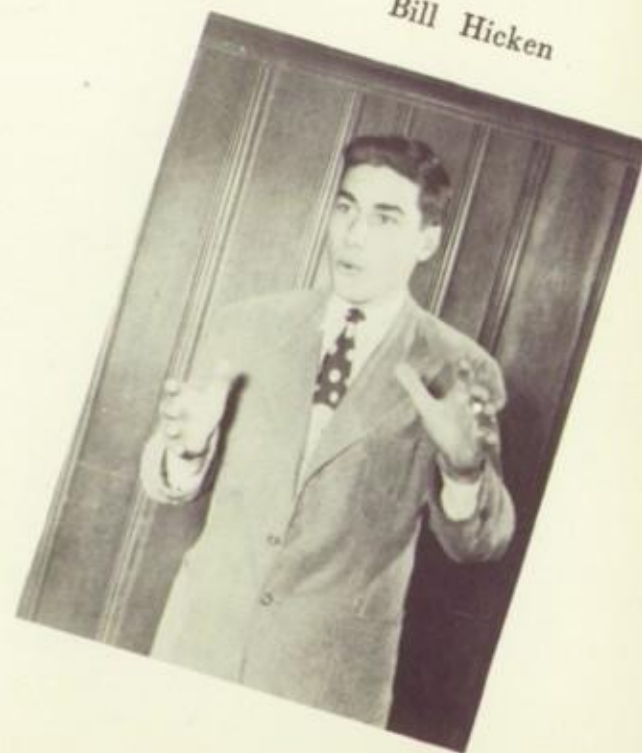

Behind our successes was the man to whom we, the graduating debaters, owe our progress in the art of speaking, and to whom we owe our warm thanks. Mr. Connolly, moderator of the Bellarmine Debating Society, is the one to whom most of the credit is due. When the year began we were green and inexperienced, but with his able guidance we improved and developed hidden talents. Studies, football games and school dances will eventually slip from our memories, but the past year of debating has afforded us a priceless possession. Confidence in ourselves, confidence in our ability to say what we think and to speak with understanding and expression.

Tom Maxwell and Dick Otenasek.

Junior Sodality

To remain in the Junior Sodality one must be an active member. To be a Sodalist in name only is not enough. In view of this end certain committees were formed. The Eucharistic Committee under the chairmanship of Lawrence Awalt took charge of the chapel. The Publicity Committee under the able leadership of Gilbert Fangmann publicized all the Sodality activities. John Gallagher and our Lady's Committee initiated the "Five Clubs" and the "Rosary at Recess". The "Five Clubs" consist of groups of five Sodalists who remind one another of the Five First Saturdays Devotion. On the first Saturday of every month the Sodalists, with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, attend Mass and receive Holy Communion, say the Rosary and meditate on some mystery of the Rosary. One of the most active groups in the Junior Sodality was the staff of our newspaper, the "Vox Mariae". Frederick Peerenboom and Joseph Mitchell deserve special praise for their art work in the "Vox Mariae". Francis McBride was our very efficient editor. Our Thursday afternoon meetings were very interesting. We learned more about Our Lord and His life, and about our Blessed Mother. We learned how to meditate and how to put our Faith into action.

Cardinal Gibbons Debating Society

Charles Kesmodel: President
Thomas Shehan: Vice-President

Thomas Burch: Secretary
Howard Hofherr: Scribe

Under the capable guidance of Rev. John F. Sheridan, S.J., the meetings of the Cardinal Gibbons Debating Society were held every Monday afternoon. The Society is composed of sophomores and freshmen. The purpose of the society is to give its members practice in public speaking, and to prepare debaters for the inter-school debates of the Senior Debating Society. A debate on some current issue was held every other Monday. These were the main sources of experience in public speaking. After each debate Father Sheridan pointed out the defects of the speakers and gave them pointers on poise and delivery. On the Mondays, when a debate was not scheduled, an open forum was held on the topic of the previous debate. Since the topic was always a current one, the members found the discussions very interesting and helpful. Some of the topics debated were, "Resolved: that the United States recognize the Communist government in China", and "that the Democratic party represents the spirit of America better than the Republican."

The Camera Club

William Jones, President

Edward Madigan, Secretary

Lenses, composition, f-numbers, depth of field, exposure meters, film rating, all these were strange but interesting terms to most of the boys who appeared at the first meeting of the Camera Club. The main purpose of the club is to give to the members a better knowledge of the art of picture taking, and to give them an opportunity to discover more about darkroom technique. To fulfill these aims the moderator, Mr. Dinneen, S.J., gave lectures on indoor flood lighting, the basic types of composition, and many other interesting subjects. To put these theories into practice the members set up and took pictures to be commented upon by Mr. Dinneen and other members. Other groups have been formed to work in the darkroom. This affords much valuable experience to the more advanced members, and instructs the others in proper darkroom technique. The members of the Camera Club are deeply indebted to Mr. Dinneen and are pleased to take this opportunity to express their appreciation of the knowledge and experience gained throughout the year, working with him in the field of photography. Upon him fell the greater part of the work of taking pictures for the Year-book, because we were not quite ready for such an undertaking.

"Parlez vous francais", or rather, "laissez vous francais?" The answer to the first question depends on a student's course of study, while the answer to the second depends on his membership in the French Club. Again this year Father Lanigan is the French Club's moderator, and he helps all the members answer "tres bien" to both questions. Fluency in speaking and reading a language depends equally on vocabulary and correct usage. At its meetings this year the French Club read "Le Voyage de Monsieur Perichon", a comedy play in which vocabulary was enlarged by repeated use of words, and correct usage was learned by seeing how the French use their mother tongue in dialogue. A part of each meeting was devoted to "Le Francais a la Page", a French-Canadian Newspaper which was received three times a month. This paper contained articles on current events, jokes and cross-word puzzles. At the first meeting the officers were elected for the year. Joseph Farrell was elected President and George Nugent, Secretary. We, the members of the French Club would like to express our gratitude to Father Lanigan for his efforts in trying to increase our facility in reading and speaking French.

Mr. Jones, S.J. plays German conversation records at the weekly meeting.

"Sprechen Sie Deutsch, mein Freund?" The conversation that followed would have startled any stranger who happened to enter the 3A classroom on the German Club afternoons. Edwin Farabaugh was President, and John Murphy Secretary. Mr. Thomas J. Jones, S.J. was Moderator. The practice in German conversation aided the boys in their regular study of the language. Listening to recorded German conversation helped in developing both pronunciation and a larger vocabulary. The purpose of the German Club is to supplement by practice in conversation the regular course in German. It does not seem practical to study a modern language for two years without getting some pleasure out of our knowledge. During the course of a meeting, humorous incidents often took place. At our last meeting before Christmas we attempted to compete with the Glee Club by rendering a few Christmas Carols in our second tongue. Because we all must say "Lebe wohl" to Loyola this year, we wish to leave to our successors all the enjoyment and benefits which we have been so fortunate to receive. We are certain that our moderator, Mr. Jones, will help our successors in their difficulties as much as he has helped us.

Edwin Farabaugh, President, Mr. Jones, S. J., Moderator and John Murphy, Secretary.

Rev. David J. Fitzgerald, S.J., Moderator of the Mothers' Club welcomes two Loyola mothers to the monthly meeting.

Mothers' Club

Loyola's 1949-50 Mothers' Club, under the direction of Rev. David J. Fitzgerald, S.J., had its first meeting in early October. Fr. Comey, Loyola's Principal, explained to the mothers the school's new guidance and testing program. This year the annual Father and Son Day was marked by a special ceremony. The cornerstone of the new gymnasium was laid with an appropriate celebration. At the Christmas meeting Mr. McCreesh, S.J. had a surprise for the mothers. His well trained Glee Club gave a joint concert with the Glee Club from Notre Dame of Maryland. All the parents who were present expressed their hope that this would become an annual affair. During the second half year the schedule was somewhat the same as last year, including the Senior Debate, Piano Recital, Hobby Show, the annual Easter Monday card party, and the Mothers' Day Communion breakfast. In April the mothers attended a day of recollection, a revived feature this year. At most of the meetings the mothers, and in fact many of the fathers, too, had an opportunity to interview the faculty members. During this past year the students and faculty have had many occasions to be grateful to the mothers. We thank God not only for our own mothers, but for the mothers joined together to help our school.

A group of the mothers, under the direction of Mrs. Francis Gunther, acted as chaperones at the school dances.

Rev. Nicholas Murray, S.J., Moderator, with the retiring officers, Mr. George McKeever, Mr. Michael Noppinger, Mr. Brooke Shehan, Mr. Frank Feild, Mr. Walter G. Logan.

Monthly meeting of the Fathers' Club.

Fathers' Club

During November the Fathers' Club elected their new officers for the coming year. Rev. Nicholas J. Murray, S.J., Moderator of the Club announced the results. Mr. Michael McGuinness was elected President, Mr. George McKeever Vice-president, Mr. Stafford Bullen, Secretary and Mr. Brooke Gunning, Treasurer. These men succeeded Mr. Frank Field, Mr. Brooke Shehan, Mr. Walter Logan and Mr. Leo McCourt. These officers served for two years.

The first big event of the year was the Fifth Annual Oyster Roast on Sunday, October 30. Blakefield was again the site. It was a great success. The fathers realized a good profit, which was contributed to the athletic fund. The fine roast was due in large part to the untiring efforts of Mr. George McKeever and his assistants.

The football team owes a great debt of gratitude to the Fathers' Club. The fathers were instrumental in the broadcasting of all the Don's football games. The games were heard over WBMD. The fathers also gave a banquet in honor of the team. They presented sweaters to the nine seniors on this year's team. At the banquet the coveted Hargaden Trophy was presented to all Maryland end Mike Picarella for his outstanding play and sportsmanship during the campaign.

On February fourth a Bull Roast was held under the able direction of Mr. Michael Leakan. The last Bull Roast three years ago was such a success that the members requested another. The final event of the year was the annual supper dance. At this event the fathers played host to the mothers.

The Glee Club

The Loyola Glee Club at practice.

Mr. Eugene P. McCreesh,
S.J., Moderator.

The Loyola High School Glee Club, under the baton of Mr. Eugene P. McCreesh, S.J., completed a very successful year. No sooner had autumn recalled the students to school than preparation and practice began for the Christmas Choral demonstration. The Loyola vocalists and the Notre Dame of Maryland choral group joined their talents to present a fine performance before the Mothers' Club on Sunday, December 18 in the school library. They repeated the performance on the following Thursday before the student body at Notre Dame. Under the direction of Mrs. Eva Shaw, the girls opened the program by singing five selections. This was followed by five familiar carols from the boys with Mr. McCreesh directing. The program closed with eight selections presented by the combined groups. Among the selections presented were "Gesu Bambino", "Good King Wenceslaus" and "The Carol of the Bells". Immediately following the Christmas holidays elections were held. Frank Gunther was chosen president and Ted Clarkson Vice-president. During the following weeks the Glee Club practiced for the musical recital, which was held on Sunday, February 12. Several selections were presented. Among them were Sigmund Romberg's "The Riff Song" and a few Negro spirituals. As our Yearbook goes to press the club is planning to join the other Catholic glee clubs of the city in presenting a Choral program upon the stage of the Lyric Theatre. This project promises to be as much of a success as the other undertakings of Loyola's newest activity group.

Boosters' Club

Those signs around the school, those noontime cheer rallies, those acts at the football games that you enjoyed so much, all of this you owe to the Boosters' Club. Loyola's cheer boys gave us no peace. During the football season they just would not let us rest. Day after day we had rallies. Even the so-called easy games could not be taken lightly. To them we should give much of the credit for that famous Loyola spirit. This past year they organized a big parade for the Calvert Hall game. This made a big hit with the crowd at the game, and even got a plug on T.V. Throughout the year Buck Kresslein and his tireless sign painters boosted every school activity. They gave a helping hand to all school drives, and kept school spirit at a peak throughout the winter sports schedule. Behind the scene and in on all the work was Mr. Eugene P. McCreesh, S.J., the Club Moderator, and most enthusiastic booster of them all.

LOYOLA 14 — SALESIANUM 0

On Sunday, September 25, the Loyola Dons opened their 1949 season in Wilmington, Delaware. The highly improved Salesianum team held the Loyola eleven to one touchdown in the first half. The Don score came when Tony Kedzior threw a twenty-five yard pass to Lou Hofferbert, who was standing alone in the end-zone. In the third period Frank Gunther shook off several tacklers and ran seventy-three yards for the Dons' second score. Lou Hofferbert converted the first point after touchdown, and Doug Foreman converted the second.

LOYOLA 19 — ST. PAUL 7

Opening their bid for the Maryland Scholastic Title, Loyola completely outclassed the St. Paul team. Charlie McLean opened the scoring early in the first quarter with a thirty-five yard run. Again in the second period McLean proved too much for the Crusaders to handle, as he ran sixty-five yards for another touchdown. St. Paul's stayed in the game with Bob Phipps score at the end of the first half. After a scoreless third period Loyola got into a little trouble when Dean of St. Paul's threw a pass to Britt who ran to the Loyola thirty. However, Charlie McLean was on his toes, and spelled defeat for the Crusies by running back an intercepted pass for the last score.

George McKeever scores against McDonogh.

LOYOLA 30 — McDONOGH 14

Playing on an unusually hot October day, the Blakefielders overcame a stubborn McDonogh eleven on the losers home field. The initial Don touchdown came when Tony Kedzior threw a pass to George McKeever. Lou Hofferbert took a Kedzior pass in the second period and went for the second Loyola T. D. Hofferbert also blocked a punt, which rolled out of the end-zone for a safety. He made good four points after touchdown. Mike Picarella and Charlie McLean scored the other Don touchdowns.

LOYOLA 41 — GEORGETOWN PREP 8

On Friday, October 14, the Dons swamped their arch Jesuit rival, Georgetown Prep. The Dons lost little time in running up the score. Before the first period ended they led 20 to 0. Charlie McLean accounted for the first touchdown by a brilliant run down the sidelines. Mike Picarella scored the second six-pointer on a pass play. Later in the first period Tony Kedzior faded for a pass, changed his mind and ran all the way. In the second half a Georgetown kick was fumbled on the Loyola fifteen yard line. It took Georgetown eleven plays from the Don five to move the ball over. Loyola came right back with scores by McKeever and Gunther.

MT. ST. JOE 34 — LOYOLA 0

Before the largest crowd of the season in the Baltimore Stadium Loyola's colors were humbled by a mighty St. Joe eleven 34 to 0. The Dons put up a good fight but they were unable to overcome the strong Gael machine. It seemed that once the Dons got rolling, a fumble or an intercepted pass ended the attack. Benzing and Ayres proved too much for the Blakefielders as they went down fighting.

LOYOLA 25 — POLY 6

On October 29, the Dons met their first tough rival in Poly. Getting off to a slow start the Dons were forced to come from behind to win. Gunther accounted for two of the Dons' touchdowns; one on a thirty-five yard run and the other on a pass. McLean scored another six pointer in the third period, and Kedzior threw another T.D. pass, this time to Picarella. The final score, Loyola 25; Poly 6.

LOYOLA 31 — CALVERT HALL 13

As the Dons took the field in their thirtieth annual clash against their arch Catholic rival, Calvert Hall, there was only one thing in their minds and that was to avenge the 13-0 upset that was handed them last season by the Cardinals. The Dons applied the pressure in the fourth period and completely outclassed the Calvert Hall team. Gunther scored the first three touchdowns. McLean scored the fourth T.D. when he caught a pass from Kedzior and ran the remaining yardage. Coach Ed Hargaden used every player. Nine seniors ended their football career under Blue and Gold colors.

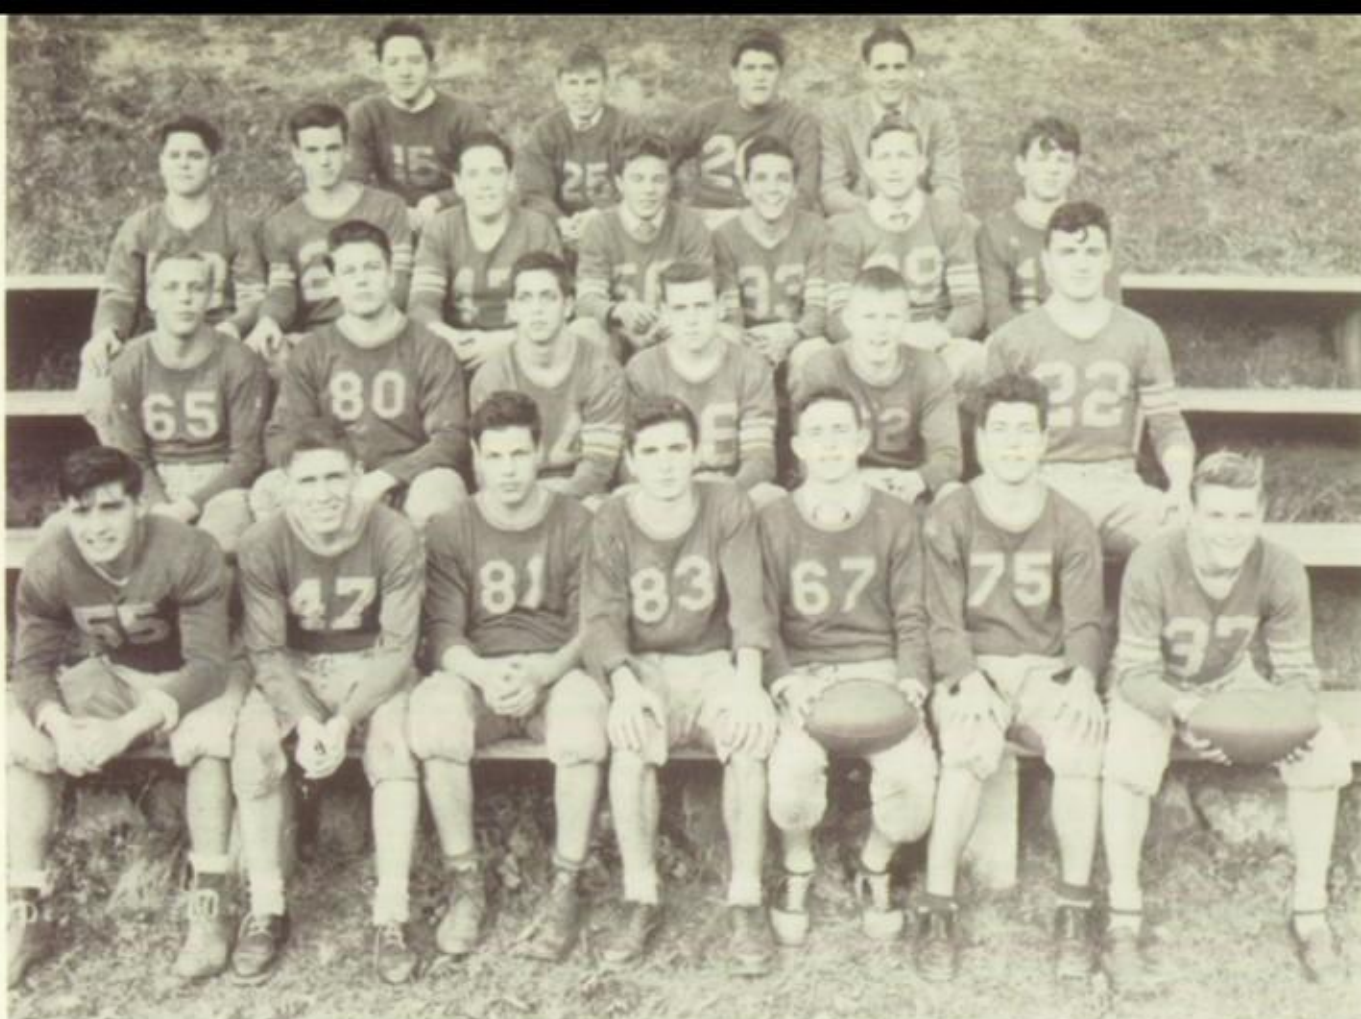

LOYOLA 7—SOUTHERN 0

The Don eleven received their first scare of the season when they were forced to wait until the final period to defeat Southern 7 to 0 at Blakefield. In the first half the Bulldogs threatened twice at the Don ten yard stripe but they were repulsed. The Blakefielders made their only attempt to score when they drove to the visitors' 16 yard line. Coming back in the second half the Dons began to threaten. Late in the last quarter, Loyola moved to the 20 yard mark where Kedzior tossed to Picarella in the end zone for the lone score. Hofferbert's try for the extra point was good, and thus the game ended.

In the playoff at Gilman St. Joe weight and power proved a little too much to overcome. Skippy Smith and Jack Snedecor directed the Jay Vees' snappy T-formation attack.

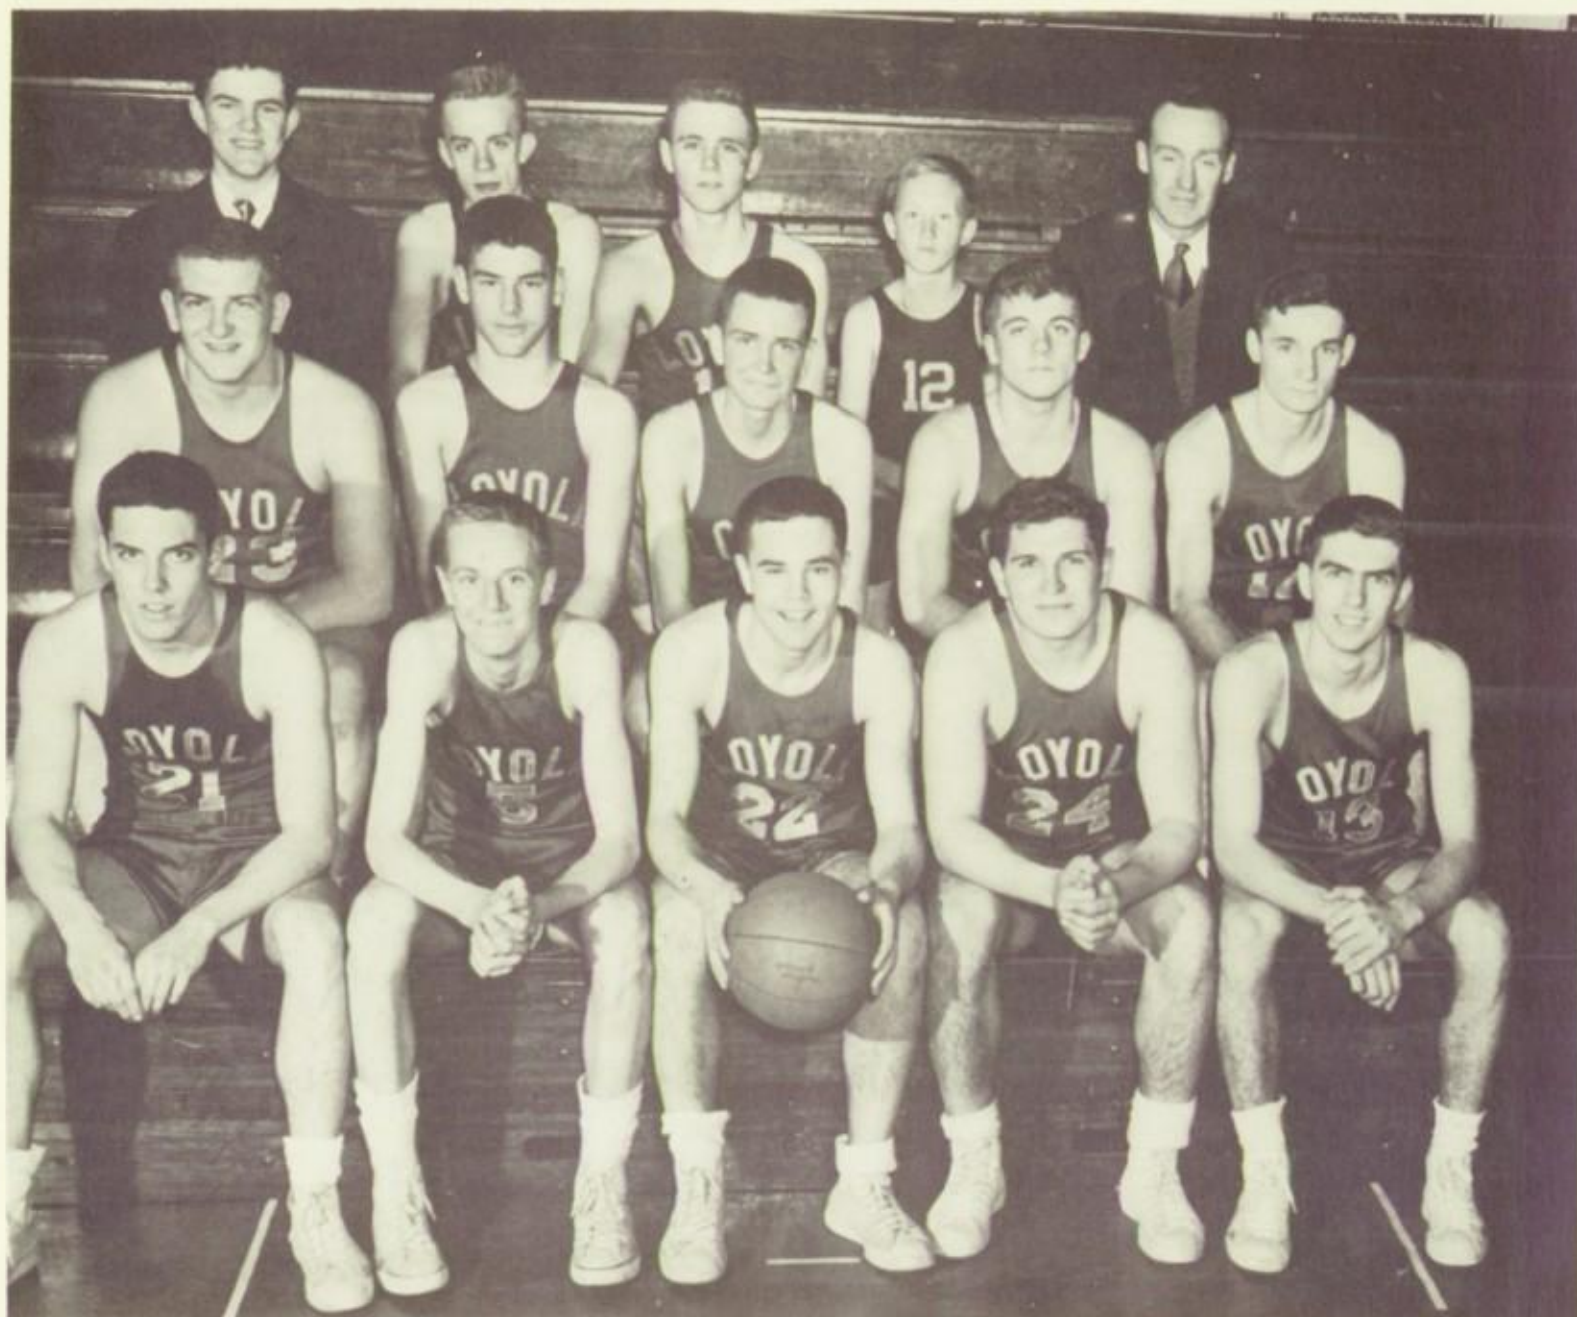

Mr. James Wintz, Loyola's All-Maryland end of the 1947 season, led the Freshmen through a good season. Despite the fact that they often played teams older and heavier, they had a record of three wins, three defeats and one tie. With the opening of the '49-'50 basketball season the Loyola rooters had high hopes of a championship team with captain Joe Lacy leading the way. The team was well fortified with seven holdovers from last year's team and six newcomers to the squad. The starting team was composed of Tom Gahan at center, high-scoring Joe Lacy and rebound-artist Lou Hofferbert at guard, Joe Judge, Frank Gunther and Buddy Orendorff alternating at the forward spots. First line reserves were Don Hoffman, George McKeever, Larry Otell, Jeep Mueller and Bill Wright. Due mainly to lack of height, the team met with rather hard going. The Dons ended the season with a league record of four wins and four losses, gaining undisputed possession of third place in division one. Captain Joe Lacy ended his high school career by becoming top scorer in the division with 105 points.

Joe Lacy, captain

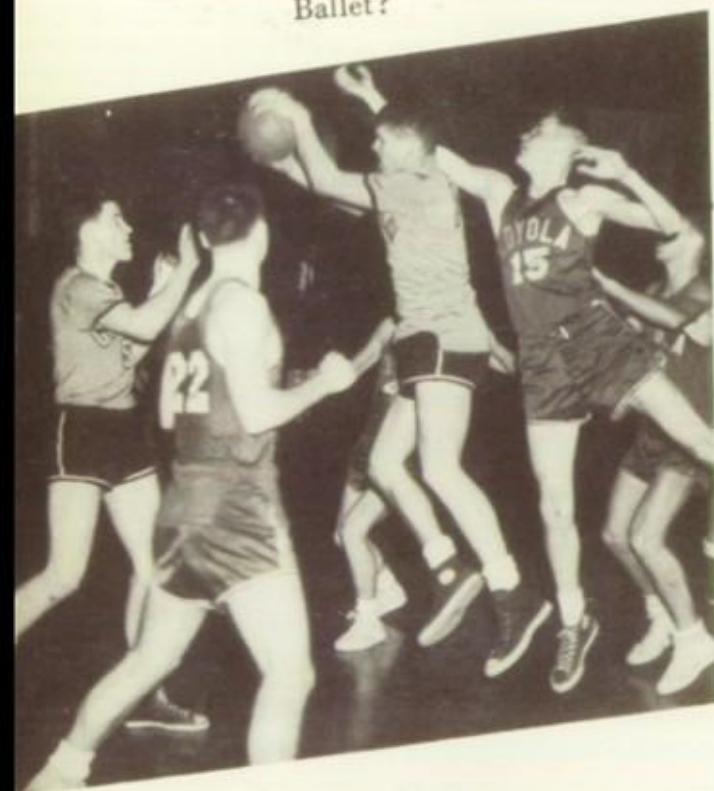

In their initial conference game the Dons defeated St. Paul in a thrilling game that went through two extra periods. Joe Lacy was high scorer with 24 points. Next Loyola met Towson Catholic. The game was close until the third quarter, when the Owls pulled ahead to stay. The final score was 56-38. For the Dons it was their first league defeat. Buddy Orendorff topped the Loyola scorers with 13 points. Then, much to the delight of Loyola followers, the Dons made St. Joe their conference victim in a game which was not decided until the final minutes of play. Tom Gahan led the attack with 15 points. The next encounter for the Blue Knights was with the Cardinals of Calvert Hall. Joe Lacy topped the scoring with 14 points in a losing effort. The final gun found the Dons on the short end of a 67-32 score. However, later in the season this game was put in Loyola's win column, when it was discovered that an ineligible player had participated.

For the second time the boys from Blakefield overpowered the St. Paul aggregation. This time the score was 39-34. Tom Gahan netted 12 points for the Dons, closely followed by Joe Lacy and Buddy Orendorff, who had 11 and 8 points respectively. Next Towson Catholic defeated Loyola for the second time. This time the score was 50-36. Again the Dons stayed within one or two points of the Owls all through the first half. At the start of the second half T.C. took a good lead and never relinquished it. Joe Lacy topped the scoring column for Blakefield with 16 points.

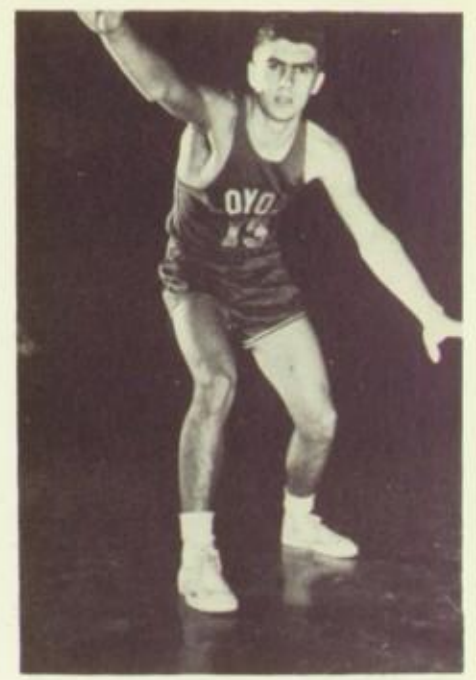

Tom Gahan

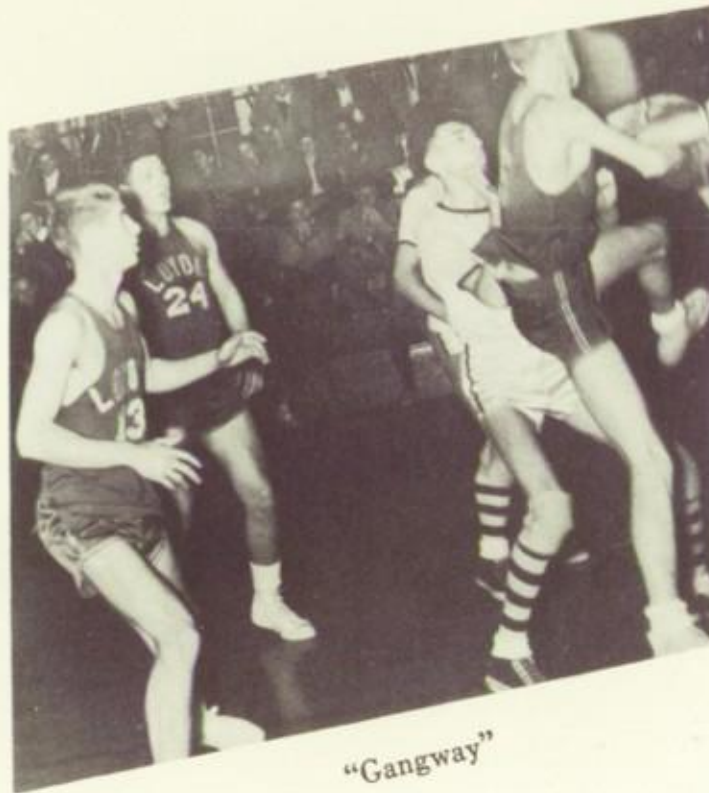

Frank Gunther

The second clash with the St. Joe Gaels ended with defeat for Loyola in a game which was the thriller of the year. It was a tight battle all the way, but St. Joe was on top 48-46 at the final gun. In this game the Dons gave their best exhibition of teamwork. Joe Lacy again took scoring laurels with 12 points. Lou Hofferbert had 9, Bud Orendorff 7 and Tom Gahan 6. The other scorers were Frank Gunther, Andy Wagner and Joe Judge. Loyola lost their last league game at the hands of Calvert Hall by a 63-51 score. Tom Gahan was high scorer with 22 points. Joe Carroll led the Card scorers with 23 points.

Buddy Orendorff

Yes, it went in!

In non-league competition the Dons won only three games. However, many of the other games were very close, and could have ended differently with a little luck. Two of Loyola's non-league victories were in games with teams in the B league. McDonogh and Gilman fell before the Blue and Gold sharpshooters. The latter team was the powerhouse of the B conference. In that game Joe Lacy scored 26 points by consistently faking the defenders out of position, and driving in for lay-ups. In competition with other Jesuit schools Loyola broke even. St. Joseph's Prep of Philadelphia scored a 56-45 victory, while Georgetown Prep of Washington fell by a 54-33 score. The only other out of town team on the schedule was St. Francis of Brooklyn. The Blue and Gold met and were defeated by St. Francis in a tight game at the Coliseum. It was a preliminary to one of the professional games.

Loyola followers were sometimes disappointed at the outcome of games, but they were always rewarded by the display of fighting spirit in a team battling superior talent. With the completion of the new gymnasium brighter basketball days lie ahead for Loyola.

The Dons' Jay Vee basketballers, coached by Mr. Francis O'Brien, S.J., had a very successful season. They won five of their eight league starts. After upsetting St. Paul and Towson Catholic the team dropped one to Mt. St. Joe, but came back to win four more league games. The Junior Dons twice lost to a tough team from St. John's College in Washington, but trounced Georgetown Prep, also of Washington. Top scorers for the J.V. were Gene Grimes, Bill Wright and Doug Foreman.

The Loyola Dons, eventual winners of the Harvard Cup, got off to a slow start by losing two of their first three games. The first game was against Poly. Loyola found the Poly defense impregnable in the first period. Dick Rice, Don wingman, scored the first goal for the Blakefielders midway in the second period to tie the score at one all. Their hopes were short-lived as Dick Wooten of the Engineers soloed early in the final period to conclude the scoring for the evening, and leave Loyola on the short end of a 2-1 count.

In their second encounter the Dons met a spirited St. Joe sextet, and were forced into a double overtime period before emerging victorious. Bob Strott carried the puck from behind his own cage down to the enemies', and tallied the winning goal.

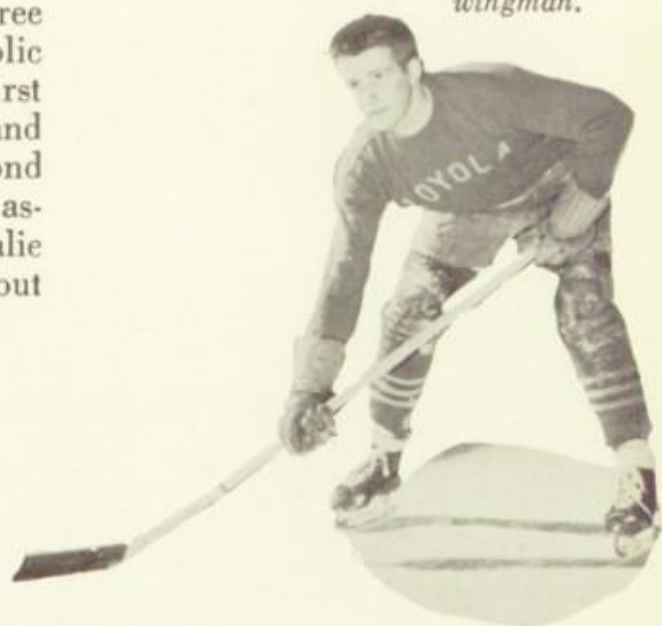

Three goals in thirty-eight seconds by Forest Park proved fatal to the Dons as they dropped their second game by a 3-2 score. Loyola led throughout the first two periods by 1-0. Sattler scored in the first period on a pass from McCusker. The Foresters' rally came after three minutes of the third period had elapsed. The scoring ended when Strott dented the nets with a penalty shot.

Loyola broke a scoreless deadlock with three goals in the third period to shut out its Catholic school rival, Calvert Hall. Strott was the first to find the range, as he took Rice's pass and rifled it past Goalie Dent. Rice tallied the second on a pass from Gene Sattler, and Chaffman, assisted by Andrews, concluded the scoring. Goalie Charlie Spigelmire racked up his first shut-out of the season.

As the second round of play began, the Dons again fell victim to Poly. The Engineers took the lead early in the first period. Loyola fought desperately to score in the remaining time, but the agility of goalie Henschen held them scoreless. Loyola's goalminder, Spigelmire, was called on for some fast action in the third period when he was credited with six saves in two and a half minutes.

Hungry for victory, the Dons took the ice against Mt. St. Joe in their second meeting. Loyola tallied twice before the Gaels could muster a tally. Strott and McCusker accounted for the Blakefielders' goals, thus keeping the team close to league-leading Poly.

Revenge was sweet for the Dons as they trounced the Foresters, and paid them back for their 3-2 loss previously. Gene Sattler took scoring honors, as he dented the nets twice in the first two minutes of play, and assisted Rice in the second stanza. Dice Rice was close behind with two goals. Bob Strott ended the scoring with a solo at the end of the second period.

It was Gene Sattler capturing the scoring laurels again as he notched three points on two goals and an assist. Bob Strott was second with a goal and an assist. The final score of this, the last game of the regular season was Loyola 3 and Calvert Hall 1. They finished second to Poly.

Loyola's varsity pucksters won a berth in the playoffs, and went on to take the Harvard Cup. Led by Strott and Alderman, Loyola moved into the finals of the Harvard Cup Series by defeating Forest Park 2-1. Strott's goal came midway in the initial period, when he grabbed the puck and went all the way to score. Bruce Alderman's point in the third period proved to be the winning one. Charlie Spigelmire turned in a fine game at the nets, and was credited with 22 saves.

Loyola captured its first Harvard Cup by turning back a fighting Cardinal sextet 4-1. The goalies, Dent and Spigelmire, accounted for sixty saves between them, the most in one game all season. Sattler was the playmaker in this contest, constantly setting up plays and himself scoring two goals and assisting once. Bob Strott scored on a long solo dash, and Paul McCusker ended the scoring for the Loyolans in their victorious effort.

Jack Burke leads an attack on the Poly goal.

Bruce Nolan, Mr. William Mercier, coach, and Don Nolan.

Kneeling: Mead, Natale, Wies. Sitting: Mr. Louis Sedlak (coach), Oles, O'Brien, L. McComas, Wheeler, Coyne, Balcerzak. Standing: Harmon, E. McComas, Connolly, Lewis, Regester, DeMarco, Schildwachter (manager).

Swimming

Mr. Louis Sedlak, coach.

The swimming team was called to its first practice on November eighth by its coach, Mr. Louis Sedlak. The tank team had only two returning lettermen, O'Brien and McComas. However, spirit made up for the lack of manpower, and the Don mermen determined to enjoy as successful a season as possible. This they did.

The Dons opened their season against Poly, and wound up on the wrong end of a 56-19 score. Lou McComas, star backstroker, represented the only first place. However, O'Brien and Wheeler placed second in their respective events.

Travelling to City College for their second meet of the season, the Dons met the team that has dominated the M.S.A. for the past several seasons. Loyola was defeated by a 64-11 score. In the following meet Loyola lost to St. Joe, taking only the backstroke and Medley relay events. The Blue and Gold tank men made a fair showing in the K. of C. Catholic Invitation Tournament against a host of fine out of town teams. Lou McComas took a first with a record breaking time.

The team reached its top form in the second round with its best meet of the season, almost topping Poly. They took first place in the 200 yard freestyle, the individual medley, the medley relay, and second place in other events. The boys pressed Poly all the way. The meet was not decided until the final event, the 200 yard freestyle relay. By this time the Dons had exhausted all their talent and lost by a body length. They had made a fine showing against a superior team. The Blue and Gold natators again made a fine showing by scoring 21 points against the highly regarded team of City College. The Dons considered this to be a moral victory, since few teams in the M.S.A. have scored this number of points against City. The Dons ended their regular season by dropping their final meet with St. Joe 44-27.

After the regular season the team traveled to Annapolis to meet the Navy Plebes and Wyoming Prep in a triangular meet. They scored 10 points against these two superior teams. In the M.S.A. Individual Championship Meet, Loyola placed three men in the finals, Ed McComas, Lou McComas and Dick Wheeler. Lou McComas took a first and Dick Wheeler a second. The Medley Relay team placed second.

The team was handicapped all season by insufficient numbers. Victory would certainly have been theirs on several occasions, had some strength remained for the final events. The gratitude of the team goes to Mr. Sedlak for his excellent and patient coaching. All the boys look forward to a more successful season next winter.

Tom O'Brien, veteran freestyler.

George Lewis and George Coyne negotiate a turn.

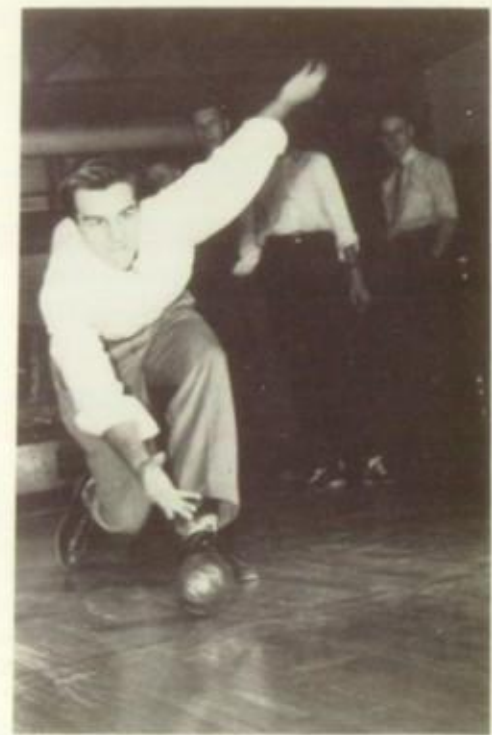

Kneeling: Wies, Fava. Standing: Holden, Pazourek, Norris, Hochrein.

The Dons, against stiff opposition, rolled through a fair season. The A team had a schedule of 42 games. They won only eight of their games. This record is not as bad as it seems, if you recall that the team bowled against the pick of the maplewood men from the large public schools. High game for the season was 523, which is considered good for high school bowlers. The averages for the varsity rollers were as follows: Jerry Pazourek 100, "Cookie" Fava 98, Ted Wies 97, Don Hochrein and Tom Holden each 95, and Vic Norris had 93. Jerry Pazourek had high game honors with 154. The team was captained by Don Hochrein. Our Don bowlers deserve a lot of credit for fighting all season against odds to win a few victories for the Blue and Gold.

BOWLING

Bill Dorn

Kneeling: Cichowicz, Aiello. Standing: Wheltle, Voyce, Goetz, Potthast.

The Junior Varsity or B Team finished their season in fifth place with 13 wins and 23 defeats. The team scoring was led by Al Wheltle, who had an average of 97. In second position for the team was Bill Dorn with an average of 94. Third place was occupied by Chick Cichowicz and Don Aiello both of whom had an average of 93. Finally, there were Chick Goetz with an average of 92, and Pat Voyce with an average of 91. As in all sports, the Don bowlers, win or lose, never gave up the fight.

Kneeling: Burt, Lacy (captain) Rice, Meade. Standing: Rev. Lee Bradley, S.J. (coach), Taymans, Maher, Schrivener, Levering, Coyne (manager).

Clark Hargest

Faced again this season with a huge turnout, Mr. Jeremiah Connolly, S.J., had a tough job picking a squad. Thinking in terms of future varsity players, he decided to keep a predominantly sophomore squad. Jack Snedecor was picked to direct the team from his position behind the plate. Jack, a smooth catcher, is one of the most promising members of the squad. Ed Lanahan has many baseball talents, all of which were utilized. When not handling the pitching job, Ed was on duty in the field. Doug Foreman, star of last year's freshman team, was selected third baseman. Joe Mace, dependable shortstop, and Jimmy Donohue, diminutive secondbaseman, were released by the varsity to fill the middle of the infield. Hard hitting Ken Wright won the first base job. All around athlete Paul Feild was master of the outfield squad. A freshman, Ed Hargest, promises to be a mainstay on the mound. Despite his youth he shows the polish of a veteran.

Yes, a BONUS of extra-satisfaction that only a more full-bodied beer can give.

More Full-Bodied because it's brewed with far more grain than the average beer.

So . . . get YOUR BONUS today!
Simply say,
"NATIONAL PREMIUM BEER."
